Crime stats for the month of July

First day of school is September 4th and summer is coming to an end. I hope everyone had a safe summer. In September I will be away for training from 9/16 until 9/29. I know meetings for most communities are starting up again in September and apologize for the scheduling conflict with my training. As always, please communicate with me As Soon As Possible if you are requesting my presence at a meeting so we can coordinate my availability.
